Full-Stops, Exclamation Marks & Question Marks

Rewrite the following sentences with a full-stop (.), exclamation mark (!) or question mark (?).

1. “Look out ()” shouted James to his brother ()

2. “Would you like some cheese with your spaghetti ()” asked Tim’s mum ()

3. The party was a success , everybody enjoyed themselves()

4. “Do you know the time()” asked the teacher()

5. It’s important that you always end a sentence with a full-stop ()

6. “Ouch()” screamed Charlotte ()

Have a go at writing some of you own sentences using full-stops, exclamation and question marks. If you need help, maybe try looking through a book, newspaper or magazine to give you some ideas.
1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Use your imagination and try to draw the funniest looking full-stop, question mark and exclamation mark that you can. Maybe you could give the full-stop some legs, arms and a funny face.